Design a Follow up Design a Follow-up and Evaluation Phases According to Quality Theories

Objectives:

The working group is finalized to share some preliminary considerations among participants to design a Follow up of training program and evaluation according to the main aspects of quality theories.

Design a Follow up Design a Follow-up and Evaluation Phases According to Quality Theories

Activities:

Phase 1: Subdivision of the participants in Working-groups

Phase 2: Discussion and debate about previous experience about Follow up of training program and evaluation

Phase 3: Design a general structure of a follow up of training program and of an evaluation, suggesting the main phases needed in order to carry it out

Phase 4: Choose the training environmental activities to be followed up and evaluated (see specific training program defined in Working Group N. 1) and the objects (such as: feedback participants, skills acquired, etc.);

Phase 5: Design the methodological tools to be used for the Follow up and evaluation activities (Questionnaires, Texts, Exercises, etc.);

Phase 6: Final presentation and discuss about working group activities
