

MoMaRi meeting in Fiumicino (Rome). Exploring and training on floating riverine macro litter

The meeting will be held in Fiumicino a small seaside town 30 km from Rome, on one of the two branches of the river. The airport, which is called Leonardo da Vinci is within the town of Fiumicino.

19th of May

For those arriving the night before pre meeting dinner in Fiumicino at 20:30

20th of May Wednesday

09:00-12:30 Roundtable on protocol and monitoring (c/o Capitaneria di porto di Roma Fiumicino)

- Monitoring protocol
- Risk of exposure of biota
- Towards shared guidelines

13:00-14:00 Light lunch

14:15-15:00 Visit to the archaeological sites of the old roman ports

15:30-18:30 Riverine excursion (hands on riverine litter and visit to the floating barrier system- Litter boom)

20:00 social dinner

21st of May Thursday

09:00-10:00 Monitoring session and training at the Tiber channel (small river branch)

11:00-12:00 Monitoring session and training at the Tiber river (large river branch)

12:30-14:00 Lunch

14:30 Transfer to airport or back to Fiumicino town (arrival at the airport at 15:00).

Info Whatsapp +39 3472439715: Roberto.crosti@isprambiente.it